GILDA'S CLUB SIMCOE MUSKOKA - WHAT'S HAPPENING

LOVE, GILDA

Love, Gilda, a Magnolia Pictures feature film, casts a spotlight on comedienne Gilda Radner as she reflects on her life and career, in her own words. Weaving together her recently discovered audiotapes, interviews with friends (Chevy Chase, Lorne Michaels, Laraine Newman, Paul Shaffer and Martin Short), rare home movies and diaries read by modern-day comedians inspired by Gilda (Bill Hader, Amy Poehler, Maya Rudolph and Cecily Strong), Love, Gilda opens up a unique window into the honest and whimsical world of a beloved performer whose greatest role was sharing her story. After an ovarian cancer diagnosis, Gilda passed away in 1989. In 1991, the first Gilda's Club opened, the name taken from Gilda's statement that cancer gave her membership to an elite club she'd rather not belong to.

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT: SHARON COOK

Gilda's Club Simcoe Muskoka has been a significant and cherished part of my life since 2005 when I was recruited by Tom McBride to join the capital campaign. Since then I have been in awe of the commitment of various individuals, particularly Pat Gilbert and Eileen Campeau who worked tirelessly to "open the red door". Over the years, the ongoing support of many businesses, service clubs, and community members who contributed to the initial build and continue to support Gilda's ongoing programming has been tremendous.

At Gilda's Club my roles have varied. I worked on the capital campaign, chaired the furnishing committee, and served two terms on the board of directors. Now, I volunteer on the Red Door golf committee and in the clubhouse. Volunteering at Gilda's feels like coming home to friends and family. I enjoy connecting each week with staff and members. Susan Haiplik is the volunteer coordinator extraordinaire! I appreciate that she plans a variety of jobs and works to accommodate my interests and schedule. Being able to work in various locations in the clubhouse gives me an appreciation of how important the clubhouse is to its members. Gilda's is an amazing organization! If you are looking for an opportunity to serve your community, a volunteer position with Gilda's Club Simcoe Muskoka might be just the fit for you!
